BATTLESHIP MISSOURI MEMORIAL HOLDS JOINT REENLISTMENT CEREMONY

Ceremony Held in Remembrance of September 11th Tragedies

Pearl Harbor, HI – (September 11, 2013) – The USS Missouri Memorial Association hosted a Joint Reenlistment ceremony this morning in remembrance of the thousands of lives lost as a result of the terrorist attacks that took place on September 11, 2001.

A total of 36 military personnel from all branches of the armed forces took an oath to recommit their undying service to our country and to the protection of its people. Major General Anthony G. Crutchfield, U.S. Army, Chief of Staff of the U.S. Pacific Command, administered the sacred oath under the historic Gun Turret One aboard the USS Missouri.

“Today’s solemn occasion gave us all the opportunity to reflect and remember the lives sacrificed on this infamous day in history,” said Michael Carr, President and COO of the USS Missouri Memorial Association. “Our deepest appreciation and gratitude go out to the service members and their families who have recommitted to serving in the armed forces, and for making the ultimate sacrifice for the safety and prosperity of our nation.”

Reenlisting service members that took part in today’s ceremonies were invited to fly their own National Ensigns, and received a commemorative flag certificate from the USS Missouri Memorial Association.

Since opening its doors in 1999, the Battleship Missouri Memorial has hosted reenlistments, promotions, commissioning’s, retirements and change of command ceremonies for sailors, soldiers, airmen, marines and coastguardsmen on nearly a daily basis. In 2012 alone, the organization held 1,007 military ceremonies.
