

PEARL HARBOR HISTORIC SITES

FACT SHEET

Welcoming more than 1.5 million visitors each year, the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites include four independent memorials and museums — some under the purview of the U.S. National Park Service and others operated by private, nonprofit organizations. Together, in partnership, they carry forth the legacies of several of our nation's most treasured icons, enduring tributes to the valor and sacrifices of our veterans during a time when the future of our nation and the world truly hung in the balance. The result is a powerful visitor destination and cumulative educational experience that has grown.

Safety is our top priority. The Pearl Harbor Historic Sites are taking additional steps to assure guests will have a safe and healthy experience touring all of the Pearl Harbor Historic Sites. We respectfully ask all visitors to abide by the state of Hawaii safety guidelines during their visit.

Pearl Harbor National Memorial (USS Arizona, USS Oklahoma and USS Utah Memorials)

A unit of the National Park Service, Pearl Harbor National Memorial and the neighboring partner sites preserve, interpret, and commemorate the history of World War II in the Pacific from the events leading to the December 7, 1941, attack on O'ahu, to peace and reconciliation. The three ships' memorials honor and commemorate all members of the U.S. Armed Forces and civilians who gave their lives to their country during the attack on the island of O'ahu and Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941.

The Pearl Harbor Visitor Center is open seven days a week from 7:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The visitor center, two museums, and USS Arizona Memorial program are free for all visitors. Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum

Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum is located on Historic Ford Island, where bombs first fell in the December 7, 1941 attack on Pearl Harbor and is America’s only World War II battlefield. It is from this hallowed place that planes first rose up in defense of Pearl Harbor in the attack that launched America into the war that would define a generation. Our collection of 70+ aircraft in two battle-scarred World War II-era hangars tell the stories of that fateful day, the battles that marked the Pacific Theatre and the rise of American innovation that followed in the decades to come. The bulkhead of the USS Arizona joined our collection in 2020 and the iconic red-and-white-striped Ford Island Control Tower will open in 2021, adding two infamous pieces of American history to our Museum and cementing Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum’s reputation as the “#1 Historical Spot Worth Travelling For” as named by TripAdvisor®. Guests are invited to take to the skies in our state-of-the-art 360-degree Fighter Ace 360 Flight Simulators and experience aviation like never before. Enjoy Ford Island as the aviators of the Pacific did in our 1940s-themed Laniakea Café. Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum is open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. General admission is $25.00 per adult and $12.00 per child 4-12. A special guided Legends of Pearl Harbor tour includes an action-packed hour of history, as well as a behind-the-scenes tour of the Shealy Restoration Shop. Military and kama‘aina discounts are available. For more information, call (808) 441-1000 or visit www.PearlHarborAviationMuseum.org.
