39th ANNUAL PRESERVATION HONOR AWARDS CEREMONY
WILL CELEBRATE ACHIEVEMENTS IN HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Historic Hawai'i Foundation will honor exemplary achievement in the field of historic preservation at the 39th Annual Preservation Honor Awards ceremony on May 31, 2013.

The awards ceremony will include presentation of the 5th Annual Frank Haines Award to preservation architect and professor Spencer Leineweber.

Spencer Leineweber has 30 years of experience in architecture and historic preservation. She has a professional degree from Cornell University, is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects, a licensed Architect and a fifth rank (top) instructor of the Ikebana Sogetsu. Leineweber is a professor and Director of Graduate Programs at the School of Architecture at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa. Her international recognition in the professional field of conservation architecture has been gained from the full range of preservation activity. She was elected to FAIA in the American Institute of Architects in 1996 and was the 2011 President of the 700-member American Institute of Architects Honolulu.

Leineweber has been an active leader in national and international preservation organizations included positions as the Chairman of the American Institute of Architects, Committee on Historic Resources (AIA/CHR); Vice Chairman of the Board of Advisors for the National Trust for Historic Preservation. She is a charter member of Historic Hawai'i Foundation.

The Haines Award was established in 2009 and named for master architect Frank Haines, FAIA. It is presented to an individual who has demonstrated sustained and outstanding achievements in the areas of preserving the significant historic and cultural places of Hawai'i.

The Haines Award headlines the annual ceremony, which also includes preservation honor awards in three categories:

- Preservation Media for a printed publication or visual presentation that interpreted the history, preservation or physical characteristics of a historic property.
- Preservation Commendation for an individual, organization, or government agency that engaged in advocacy, educational, programmatic, or other activity supporting preservation efforts, either for a specific historic property or through a broad-based program.
- Preservation Award for a specific project that preserved, rehabilitated, or restored a historic property.

In addition, Anniversary Recognitions will be presented in celebration of the rich history of the kama'āina companies, organizations and institutions that are an important and integral part of the singular culture of the Hawaiian Islands.

Honors will be presented to the following:

About the Preservation Honor Awards

Historic Hawai'i Foundation's preservation awards have been presented annually since 1975. They are Hawaii's highest recognition of projects that perpetuate, rehabilitate, restore or interpret the state's architectural and cultural heritage.

The honorees are selected by a committee comprised of professionals in architecture, history, planning, landscape architecture, architectural history and media. Each nomination is considered on its own merits and not in competition with others.

About the Awards Ceremony

The 2013 Preservation Honor Awards Ceremony will be held on Friday, May 31, 2013 at the Neal S. Blaisdell Center in Honolulu in the Pikake Room at 4:00 p.m. A reception will follow the presentation program.

Tickets to the awards ceremony may be purchased for $45 each (HHF members) or $60 (General). See www.2013hhfhonorawards.eventbrite.com for details and to reserve seats. Purchase deadline for tickets is April 29, 2013.
